PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Rev. Dr. W. T. Lockett, Associate Minister, St. James Missionary Baptist Church, Melbourne:

Eternal God, in whose presence we now come and come with thanksgiving in our hearts. First, we thank thee for listening to us. We thank thee for the place in which we are now assembled. We thank thee, dear God, for these legislators and we pray that thou would consecrate their hearts. Give them forgiving hearts and let them be able to tread paths that have yet been unmarked.

O God, teach them that they might be able to play the game of life with fairness, courage, boldness, fortitude and with confidence. Provide them with the strength to encounter whatever is to come. Touch their hearts, O God, that they might be able to legislate the kind of legislation that would make this state one that others would be destined to follow—follow in the areas of love, areas of housing, employment and in education. Touch them and grant them peace. Let them be able to do what thou would have them do. This we ask in thy name. Amen.
